OLD EDMONDS / WOODWAY (Home School Resource Center): 23200 - 100th W, Edmonds

The Old Edmonds-Woodway High School is now actually the Edmonds Homeschool Resource Center. It is located off of 100th Ave. W which is south of Edmonds Way (Hwy 104) in Edmonds. If you are going west (towards the water and downtown Edmonds) on Hwy 104 (Edmonds Way) turn left onto 100th Ave. West. You will see the Westway Shopping Center on the left at this intersection. There is a Bartell Drug store and Starbucks in there. Immediately get into the right hand lane and turn right at the first stop light. There is a blue and white elevated sign that reads: Edmonds Homeschool Resource Center. To the left at this intersection is a white house with the address of 23217. If you pass 234th, you've gone too far. You'll wonder if you are in the wrong place because the road seems a bit desolate, but follow it on around and you will see the old school buildings. Park anywhere in the parking lot.
